
Thoughts About Dreams

If you don't daydream and kind of plan things out in your imagination, you never get there. So you have to start someplace. —Robert Duvall

If you want to enjoy success, fantasize about it. If you want a special love, fantasize about that, too. When it comes along, you will be more comfortable. It won't be a new experience.

—Dr. Hirschfeld

Talk about a dream; try to make it real.

—Bruce Springsteen

No one should negotiate their dreams. Dreams must be free to flee and fly high. No government, no legislature, has a right to limit your dreams. You should never agree to surrender your dreams.

—Reverend Jesse Jackson

What lies behind us and what lies before us are small matters compared to what lies within us.

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

Hold fast to your dreams, for if dreams die, then life is like a broken winged bird that cannot fly.

—Langston Hughes

Some men see things as they are and say "Why?" I dream things that never were and say "Why not?"

—George Bernard Shaw

It may be those who do most, dream most.

—Stephen Leacock

Vision is the art of seeing the invisible.

—Jonathan Swift

Those that dream at night in the dusty recesses of their minds awake the next day to find that their dreams were just vanity. But those who dream during the day with their eyes wide open are dangerous men — they act out their dreams to make them reality. —T. Lawrence

All men of action are dreamers.

—James G. Huneker

If you have built castles in the air, your work need not be lost; that is where they should be. Now put the foundations under them.

—Henry David Thoreau

It is difficult to say what is impossible, for the dream of yesterday is the hope of today and the reality of tomorrow. —Robert H. Goddard.

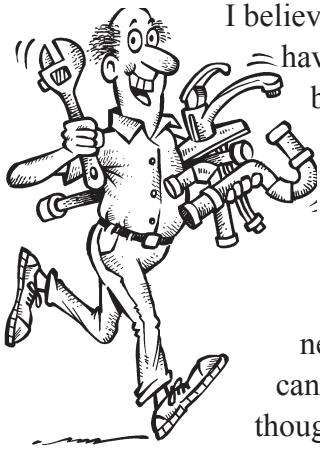

The first principle of success is desire — knowing what you want. Desire is the planting of your seed.

—Robert Collier

QUICK CHECK:

1. Duvall: What happens if you don't dream?
2. Springsteen: How do you make a dream real?
3. Jackson: Who cannot limit your dreams?
4. Emerson: What is more important than what is behind us and before us?
5. Hughes: What is life like when dreams die?
6. Leacock: Who dreams most?
7. Swift: What is vision?
8. Huneker: What type of men are dreamers?
9. Thoreau: What should you do after building castles in the air? What does this mean?
10. Collier: What is the first principle of success?
11. Which quote did you like? (Write down the author's name.) In a complete sentence, give a reason for your choice.

Thoughts About Entrepreneurship

I believe in America because we have great dreams — and because we have the opportunity to make those dreams come true.

—Wendell Wilkie

You have powers you never dreamed of. You can do things you never thought you could do. There are no limitations in what you can do except the limitations of your own mind. —Darwin Kingsley

The dream begins with a teacher who believes in you, who tugs and pushes and leads you to the next level, sometimes poking you with a sharp stick called “truth.” —Dan Rather

If a man goes into business with only the idea of making money, the chances are he won't.

—Joyce Hall

To open a business is very easy; to keep it open is very difficult.

—Chinese proverb

Who likes not his business, his business likes not him.

—William Hazlitt

I can give you a 6-word formula for success — “Think things through; then follow through.”

—Edward Rickenbacker

Entrepreneurs are risk takers, willing to roll the dice with their money or reputations on the line in support of an idea or business. They willingly assume responsibility for the success or failure of a venture and are answerable for all of it. The buck not only stops at their desks; it starts there, too.

—Victor Klam

Going into business for yourself, becoming an entrepreneur, is the modern-day equivalent of pioneering on the old frontier.

—Paula Nelson

Business is a lot like a game of tennis — those who serve well will usually end up winning.

—Anonymous

Starting your own business: Take an idea, add a cupful of brains, a generous pinch of imagination, a bucketful of courage and daring, stir well and bring to a boil.

—Anonymous

Happy are those who dream dreams and are ready to pay the price to make them come true.

—Leon Suenens

Don't let life discourage you. Everyone who got where he is had to begin where he was.

—Richard Evans

Work your way up or rust you way out. —Holton

The secret to success is making your vocation (career), your vacation.

—Mark Twain

QUICK CHECK:

1. Wilkie: What does he like about America?
2. Kingsley: What may limit you?
3. Proverb: What is easy? What is difficult?
4. Klam: What 2 things do entrepreneurs (people who start businesses) risk (or put on the line)?
5. Nelson: Who is the modern-day pioneer?
6. Why is business like a game of tennis?
7. Suenens: What 2 things make people happy?
8. Evans: Why should you not get discouraged?
9. Which quote do you like? (Write down the author's name.) Give a reason for your choice.